Charley has a tough time getting to work and when he arrives late the boss gives him the razzberry. He presents the boss' secretary with a rose. The boss promptly throws it into the basket and incidentally, he has a half dozen flowers of his own to give to the girl, but they are smeared with ink. He face is blackened as a result.

He is on the verge of firing the big fat boob when he received a letter for Charley, announcing that Charley's rich uncle is dead. The boss treats Charley most gloriously and sends him to a fine tailor and haberdasher.

When the will is read, each relative is given a dollar for every pound he or she might weigh. Charley is given a cuckoo clock. The secretary gives him the go-bi. Then the tradespeople enter and take their clothes from him.

The boss enters as Charley tosses the clock away. It hits the boss on the dome and a shower of bills fall out. Charley then throws the boss out and collapses with joy.
